

BRUEGEL'S FUTURE OF WORK WORKSTREAM

EU/US TRANSATLANTIC EXPERT GROUP ON THE FUTURE OF WORK

Promoting the exchange of views and best practices in the area of the future of work that can feed current and future EU-US policy dialogue – 2020-2022

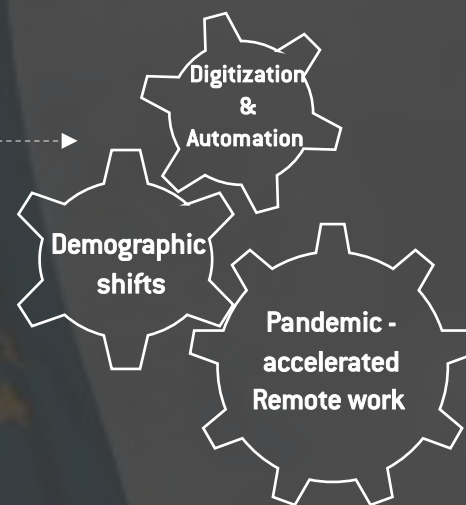

G | M | F The German Marshall Fund of the United States
STRENGTHENING TRANSATLANTIC COOPERATION

RATIONALE

- Emerging challenges in the future of work
- Need for profound changes in social protection, education & training, the role of social partners
- Both the US and the EU can benefit from mutual learning & exchange of best policy practices in this area
- Need to revitalize policy dialogue between the EU and the US in the area of labour issues

OBJECTIVES

- To create a diverse group of expert stakeholders from both sides of the Atlantic
- To foster dialogue & cooperation among the experts and parent institutions
- To formulate practical findings through focused dialogue
- Ultimate goal: Policy recommendations

NETWORK - EXPERT GROUP

Expert Group of 30: from civil society, academia, think tanks, labour and the business community.

15 European experts
US experts

Smaller Working groups with three focus areas:

- 1) Technology as a driver of change in the future of work
- 2) The inequality challenge and the role of education, skills training, and social partners
- 3) The future of social protection policy

RESEARCH OUTPUT

- Short papers
- E-Book consolidating the working groups' short papers
- Blogposts, Op-eds and Podcasts
- Conference presentations of the findings & recommendations

TARGET GROUPS & BENEFICIARIES

- Policymakers
- Businesses
- Workers & trade unions
- Civil society
- Academic experts

CORE TEAM

BRUEGEL
Zsolt Darvas

@ZsoltDarvas

J. Scott Marcus
 scott.marcus@bruegel.org

GMF
Astrid Ziebarth

aziebarth@gmfus.org

Anne-Marie Brady
 ABrady@gmfus.org

THE ROAD TO 2022

MAY 2021

First Plenary Session

NOV 2021

Second Plenary Session

DEC 2022

Final Plenary Session
Presentation of findings to the public

Quarterly meetings of Working Groups

