

From De-industrialization to the future of industries

Workshop organized by the

Fondation France-Japon de l'EHESS & Bruegel

Brussels, 28 November, 2014

The Fondation France Japon de l'EHESS is beneficiating from the support of the following organizations for this event: Air Liquide, EDF, EHESS, The Japan Foundation

Place: Bruegel, Rue de la Charité 33-1210 Brussels - Belgium

Contact and information: Ken Daimaru (ken.daimaru@ehess.fr) & Matilda Sevon (matilda.sevon@bruegel.org)

Part I: Globalization and labor market outcomes: de-industrialization, job security, and wage inequalities

09:00-09:15 Welcome Address and general introduction by Guntram Wolff (Bruegel)

Chair: Guntram Wolff (Bruegel)

09:15-09:35 Sébastien Lechevalier (EHESS): Presentation of the special issue of Review of World Economics (Volume 151, issue 2, 2015), "Globalization and labor market outcomes: de-industrialization, job security, and wage inequalities"

09:35-09:55 Sébastien Miroudot (OECD): "Is Labor the fall guy of a financial-led globalization? Offshoring and its Relations to Wage-share, Employment and Skills in France, Germany, Korea and Japan since 1995" (joint with Cédric Durand (University Paris 13))

Discussant: Antonio Andreoni (SOAS)

09:55-10:25 Discussion and Coffee Break

- 10:25-10:45 El Mouhoub Mouhoud (University Paris Dauphine): “Which are the risky jobs in the globalization? The French case” (joint with Catherine Laffineur (University Paris Dauphine))
- Discussant: Cédric Durand (University Paris 13)
- 10:55-11:15 Ryo Kambayashi (Hitotsubashi University): “Expansion Abroad and Jobs at Home, Revisited” (joint with Kozo Kiyota (Keio University))
- Discussant: Kazuyuki Motohashi (The University of Tokyo)
- 11:25 -12:25 Policy panel “The impact of globalization on national labor markets. Policy implications and recommendations“
- Participants: Cédric Durand (University Paris 13), Ryo Kambayashi (Hitotsubashi University), Sebastien Lechevalier (EHESS), Mouhoub El Mouhoud (University Paris Dauphine), Guntram Wolff (Bruegel)
- 12: 25 -13:30 Lunch

Part II: Emergence and evolution of new industries: from the analysis of industrial dynamics to a political economy approach

- Chair: El Mouhoub Mouhoud (University Paris Dauphine)
- 13:30-13:50 p.m. Presentation of “The pathdependent dynamics of emergence and evolution of new industries”, special section of Research Policy (Volume 43, Issue 10, 2014, co-edited by J. Krafft, S. Lechevalier, F. Quatraro & C. Storz) by Sébastien Lechevalier (EHESS)
- Discussant: Reinhilde Veugelers (Bruegel)
- 13:50-14:10 Kazuyuki Motohashi (The University of Tokyo): “Differences in science based innovation by technology life cycles: A case of solar cell technology“
- Discussant: Lionel Nesta (OFCE)
- 14:20-14:40 Rinaldo Evangelista (University of Camerino): “The impact of Business services on the economic performances of manufacturing industries“
- Discussant: Antonio Andreoni (SOAS)

14.50-15:20

Coffee Break

15:20-15:40

Lionel Nesta (OFCE): “Competition and innovation: a new challenge for economic policy in the European Union“

Discussant: Kazuyuki Motohashi (The University of Tokyo)

15:50-17:00

Policy panel 2: “Emergence of new industries: what can industrial and innovation policies do?”

Participants: Antonio Andreoni (SOAS), Sebastien Lechevalier (EHESS), Kazuyuki Motohashi (The University of Tokyo), Lionel Nesta (OFCE), Reinhilde Veugelers (Bruegel)

17:00

Conclusion by Reinhilde Veugelers (Bruegel) and Sebastien Lechevalier (EHESS)